HIDE & SEEK

Inferential reading strategies

As readers begin to dig deeper into the implied or inferred ideas present in the texts they use skills and strategies that enable them to:

- To use facts (in text or images) to explore inferred ideas
- Form predictions or develop informed guesses
- Explore sequences, settings and hidden plot ideas
- Extend phonological awareness and develop vocabulary banks
- Use the understanding that reading is a two-way process to explore other connections texts might have.

Includes

- Overview of all reading strategies across all the layers involved in reading
- Seventeen reading strategy cards with title, prompt and image
- Seventeen simple prompt cards with title and image

I,

INTERESTS

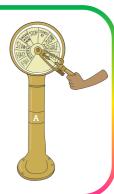

Prior knowledge and interests: Providing frameworks for increasing student engagement through prior knowledge connections with student interests

AGENCY

Developing scaffolds that support voice and choice in the learning process Learners will have the opportunity to be actively involved and response-abled during the learning process.

SKILLS

Skills, processes, strategies and approaches to learning that support learners to learn how to learn. Learners will have an opportunity to discover the different ways they learn in different situations.

KNOWLEDGE

Details, facts and information related to an inquiry or topic. Learners need to have support accessing relevant information and the time to analyse and comprehend the knowledge.

UNDERSTANDING

Concepts and understandings that support learners become meaning makers.

Learners should begin to see that there are themes or ideas that cross across time, place subjects and disciplines.

BeConWiz's commitment to equitable and ethical practices

BeConWiz, will be referred to as BCW in this document.

We at BeConWiz, acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of the lands on which we work and live throughout Australia and recognise their continuing connection to land, waters and culture. We pay our respects to their Elders past, present and emerging.

BCW is committed to creating a safe and welcoming environment that embraces all backgrounds, cultures, sexualities, genders and abilities.

BCW will now use 'they - themself' as a singular, genderneutral pronoun in all material and resources generated. Just as the use of 'he - man' disappeared women's voice and identity, use of the binary 'she he' and related pronouns has disappeared and rendered voiceless marginalised groups that do not identify with the 'he -she' pronouns. Until some wider grammatical agreement has been reached about what pronouns will be used to embrace the diversity of gender experience, in text we will use 'they - themself' in our materials. Given that words/language create reality, using language that is acknowledging and inclusive of all people who identify across a wide gender spectrum is an issue of power, politics, respect and visibility. "
